

Support Work as Dignity Work

Support Workers as Dignity Workers

NORA JACOBSON, M.A., Ph.D.

Author of “Dignity & Health”

The “Dignity Model” & “Dignity Audit”

DIGNITY SPEAKS TO EACH OF US.

Join us as we explore:

- the processes & structures of dignity violation
- dignity promotion opportunities
- the consequences for individual & collective health
- imagine reform of our systems of health and social care.

Setting Boundaries in Supportive Relationships

KATHRYN STOREY, RN, M.A. Ph.D.

An update on a research project on finding balance in setting limits within peer support relationship.

Presenters/Trainers

Dr. Nora Jacobson is the author of Dignity and Health, which was just published by Vanderbilt University Press. From 2001 to 2010 she was a scientist at the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, and she conducted her research on dignity in Toronto. She now lives and works in Wisconsin. You can find her blog at www.commonrespect.wordpress.com.

Dr. Kathryn Storey, PhD. was the Administrative Director for the Regional Acute Mental Health and Addiction Service for North Simcoe Muskoka. Prior to that she was the Chief of the Acute and Community Division at the Mental Health Centre Penetanguishene and remains an employee of the Ministry of Health and Long Term Care. She is a registered nurse with an additional undergraduate degree in Psychology and completed her doctoral thesis on leadership of people in recovery. She continues her work as a consultant, educator and independent contractor specializing in program development and evaluation, and recovery education consultation.

Presented by:

PREFER

Peer Recovery Education
for Employment & Resilience

Building a Culture of Recovery

 A comprehensive education strategy

WORKSHOP DETAILS

Date: Friday September 21, 2012
9am-4pm

Fee: $150 Early Bird/$160 Regular/$75 Student

Location:

Branson Site , North York General Hospital
555 Finch Ave. W. Toronto

REGISTRATION

Online: <http://preferdignity.eventbrite.com>

Or fax, email, or mail your registration form and mail with cheque payable to: The Krasman Centre

The Centre for Building a Culture of Recovery
c/o The Krasman Centre
10121 Yonge Street
Richmond Hill, Ontario L4C 1T7

1-888-780-0724 Toll Free

905-780-1960 fax

www.cultureofrecovery.org

Who Should Attend?

- Managers of health, mental health, addiction, & social service programs
- Policy and decision makers
- Clinical and social support workers
- Peer workers
- Activists
- Family Members & Friends
- Peers: Anyone who is in the role of a “supporter” and a “peer”.

Anyone who wants to stimulate thought and potential action towards increasing the responsiveness of social & health services to respect the human rights of those they seek to support.